Max went wild!!!

A large American flag serves as the background for the entire image. It features the stars and stripes in their traditional colors of blue, white, and red.

The End

The background of the slide features a stylized American flag. The stars are represented by a cluster of grey stars in the upper left corner. The stripes are depicted as horizontal bands of varying shades of red, white, and blue. In the lower right quadrant, there is a bright, multi-colored fireworks display.

This story is dedicated to Sarah Hope Eary
who spreads joy wherever she goes

Notes to Parents:

1. The printed version of this story is meant for you to read to your 3 or 4 year old toddler. Most of the words in the story are simple enough for your child to interpret at this age or possibly even younger. When you read to your child, please do the sound effects. Improvise.
2. There is an animated version of this story titled “Max on the Moon” at the YouTube channel
<https://www.youtube.com/@utilars>
Unfortunately, for reasons I can’t list here, the animated story is voluntarily rated PG. Please visit the following URL to understand why the PG rating is necessary:
